DESIGN BIO of DAVID VOGT, CR

TITLE:

Senior Project Designer

National Association of Remodeling Industry (NARI) Certified Remodeler (CR)

David Vogt has more than 18 years of expertise in the Residential Design/Build Industry. He received his Bachelor of Architecture Degree from the Catholic University of America in 1990. Shortly after, he went to work for a prominent local residential architectural firm. During his tenure, he honed his design skills and worked in the field gaining valuable experience and practical knowledge by designing and building a diverse range of projects.

David joined Case Design/Remodeling Inc. in 1997 and is now a Senior Project Designer. For more than a decade, he has been instrumental in the growth of Case's Design/Build Division. David has been honored with the Case "Designer of the Year Award" in 2004 and 2006. He has received national recognition from Professional Remodeler 2007 "Best of the Best", National Association of Remodeling Industry 2003 "Remodeling Today" and Qualified Remodeler 2000 "Remodeling Master."

David's projects have been featured in several national publications including: Professional Remodeler, Kitchen Style and Design Magazine, Money Magazine and Qualify Remodeler. Several of his projects have also been showcased on HGTV's "20 Ways to Add Value to Your Home." He attributes his success to the extraordinary team of people and the processes that Case has assembled and created in its 47 years of being an industry leading design/build company.

David, his wife and two young daughters live in Silver Spring, MD, where they are currently renovating their own home.
