DESIGN BIO of JOHN AUDET

John Audet is a native of Montgomery County, Maryland. He graduated from Good Counsel High School and in 1989 earned his BA in Criminal Justice from the University of Maryland. John has been with Case Design/Remodeling, Inc. since 1999 and has an enormous amount of expertise in sales, project design, leadership, client relations and training. John has lead many training seminars for Case both locally as well as nationally.

John has received many design awards such as the National Chrysalis Award for both kitchen and bathroom projects. He has been interviewed by several local and national publications on topics relating to remodeling. John keeps up with industry trends by attending The National Kitchen and Bath Show, The National Remodeling Show, and The Remodeler's Big 50 Leadership Conference. He is an active member of NARI (National Association of the Remodeling Industry) and NKBA (National Kitchen and Bath Association). John earned the designations of Certified Remodeler (CR) and Certified Kitchen and Bath Remodeler (CKBR) through The National Association of the Remodeling Industry. In 2007 John was awarded The Henry Spies Award for achieving the highest score nationally on the CKBR exam.

With strong organizational and communication skills, John Audet takes pride in his work and gets great satisfaction from creating delighted clients. Although John specializes in kitchens and bathrooms, he enjoys helping his clients with other projects such as basement design/space planning, built-in storage units, portico design and screened porches.

John lives in Silver Spring, MD with his wife of eighteen years and his three children. He enjoys being a soccer coach in the MSI organization, an adult volunteer with his oldest son's Boy Scout Troop, and a member of the Knights of Columbus. John enjoys most outdoor activities especially saltwater fishing and scuba diving.
